

Transport firm wins major award

By BRENDAN MCCARTHY

MILLSTREET-BASED K&L Deliveries has been awarded the Sales Award 2010 for the company's outstanding contribution to developing and generating new business, at The Pallet Network (TPN) Awards.

The awards are designed to reward excellence and to raise the standards and public perception of the freight and logistics industry in Ireland.

TPN members from around the country voted in the awards, judging their peers on their performance in categories such as on-time delivery, customer service and contribution to the national network.

K&L Deliveries, which is owned by Gordon O'Keefe and his wife Breeda, has already been the recipient of numerous industry awards, including two National Haulier of the Year awards, Fleet Magazine Operator of the Year, a FAS Excellence Through People award and Fleet Magazine Overall Transporter of the Year award. The company is based in Mountleader Industrial Estate in Millstreet.

K&L Deliveries has been in operation since 1986, initially providing a courier, transportation and distribution service in Munster but now delivering throughout Ireland and the UK, while also providing a warehousing service for their many clients spread over the Munster and Dublin areas.
