

Freight company wins national sales award

KERRY-based freight and transport service provider, K&L Deliveries, has won a prestigious industry award at the third annual Pallet Network Awards.

K&L Deliveries, the Kerry member of TPN (The Pallet Network), was awarded the Sales Award 2010 for its outstanding contribution to developing and generating new business.

The award winners are selected by Pallet Network members from around the country who judged their peers on their performance in categories such as punctual delivery, customer service and contribution to the national network.

Managing Director of K&L Deliveries Gordon O'Keefe said he was delighted with the award.

"In this difficult economic climate, the team at K&L have worked incredibly hard over the last year and it is great to be recognised by peers in the industry and within the Pallet Network," he said.

K&L Deliveries has been in operation since 1986, initially providing a courier, transportation and distribution service in Munster.

The company has grown significantly and now delivers throughout Ireland and the UK, operating from a 60,000 square foot warehouse and using a fleet of over 35 vehicles.

Gordon O'Keefe, Managing Director, K&L Deliveries, accepting the Sales Award 2010 at the Pallet Network Awards with Adam Lenoard, K&L Deliveries and Owen Cooke, Chairman of, The Pallet Network.