

Great care offered to every customer

PROGRESSIVE firm K&L is based in a purpose-built warehouse and office facility in the Mountleader Industrial Estate in Millstreet.

Its 60,000 sq ft complex occupies an eight-acre site housing 43,000 sq ft warehouse built to top industry standards. There is also an extensive office complex, a fleet vehicle servicing centre, parking for its extensive fleet and even a large area to allow for further expansion of warehousing when it is required into the future.

The company offers a huge range of services to its customers, including:

Groupage: where a vehicle travels a preset route on a daily basis providing customers with a 24 hour, low cost, freight service.

Direct Routing: where a customer contracts a vehicle and driver to deliver its goods specifically to its requirements.

Contract Hire: where a customer contracts a vehicle on a long-term basis and controls its use and routing.

Warehousing: where K&L Deliveries Ltd holds material or stock for a customer until such time as they require it to be delivered.

Unit Load: where K&L collects full arctic loads from and to anywhere in Ireland.

K & L Deliveries Ltd operates a number of regular routes, and is also the agent for the Pallet Network in Kerry.

The Pallet Network is the number one distributor of palletised freight in Ireland with a network of 21 regional carriers, known as The Pallet Network Members. It is the largest network in Ireland with unrivalled coverage and reach.

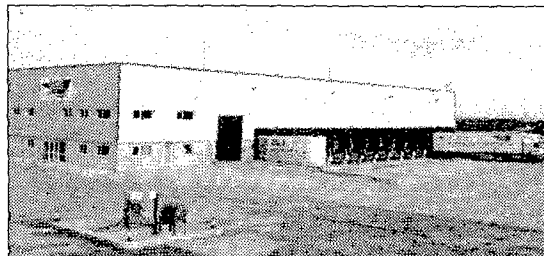

It offers a unique integrated link to the Pallet Network UK. Its 88 members enable members in Ireland to provide a premium Export-Import service to and from the UK.

The Network operates from a €15 million hub facility with the capacity to handle 5000 pallets per night. It operates to standardised procedures and measures its performance across all depots with league tables, which are reviewed regularly.

Across Ireland and the UK, it operates a single tracking system with bar-coded labels, unique pallet numbers and digital imaged proof of delivery.

With its links to the Pallet Network, customers can be sure of the best service available.

Not only is K&L Deliveries the only company in the seven-year history of the IRHA Road Transport Awards to win the National Haulier of the Year twice but it has also won the IRHA Member Haulier of the Year for the last two years, most recently the 2009 award which owner Gordon O'Keefe accepted in recent months.

The top class K&L Deliveries Ltd base in Millstreet with several loading bays and a state-of-the-art suite of offices.
